

Stunt-O-Rama

By Pearson

One day a peculiar thing happened. I was in my cluttered room putting on my dazzling outfit, and my crazy cat Milo was in there with me. Just then, I sensed movement behind me. Not taking thought to it, I started to walk out of my room. After that, I turned around to see my crazy, stunt-devil cat get up on two legs and take five coordinated steps. I was amazed and shot off to exclaim the unbelievable news to my mom and dad. "Mom, Mom! Our fur-ball walked on two legs!" I shouted. I still can't believe it down to this day. I think that's the craziest thing my fluff-bucket has ever done.
